

St. Cuthbert's Catholic Primary School Curriculum Statement Writing

Intent	Implementation	Impact
What will take place before teaching in the	What will this look like in the classroom?	How will this be measured?
classroom?		Dunii Vaiga will shaw.
 The school's senior leadership team will: Lead the school staff to develop a clear overarching curriculum intent which drives the ongoing development and improvement of all curriculum subjects. Ensure that the curriculum leaders have appropriate time to develop their specific curriculum intent through careful research and development. Provide sufficient funding to ensure that implementation is high quality. Support curriculum leaders and teachers in selection of appropriate schemes/materials if applicable to ensure effective teaching. 	Our typical teaching sequence will be: Reading phase: Analyse text/WAGOLL Identify features, vocabulary and skills Collate ideas and inspiration Make judgements about effectiveness Toolkit phase: Focus on writing and editing skills-warm task Learn, practise and apply specific skills Writing phase: Combine skills for purpose Draft, edit, improve, redraft, refine Evaluate	 Pupil Voice will show: A developed ability to use phonic knowledge at theirstage of development to decode and blend for reading A secure understanding of the key techniques and methods for each key area of the programme A progression of understanding, with appropriate programme vocabulary which enables learning
The curriculum leader will:	Our classrooms will:	Displays around school and books will show:
 Understand and articulate the expectations of the curriculum to support teaching and support staff in the delivery. 	Provide appropriate quality equipment for each area of the curriculum.	 Children have had opportunities for practice andrefinement of skills. A consistent approach to the delivery and
 Ensure an appropriate progression of skills is in place which supports children in knowing more andremembering more vocabulary, grammatical knowledge and skills which develops them as writers 	 Have developed learning walls which include appropriate materials to both scaffold and extend learning, including carefully designed WAGOLLs which raise expectation and challenge children Be organised so that children can work in small groups or whole class as appropriate to support 	implementation of guided writing for children once they have completed the school phonics programme, and use this familiar structure to support children thus ensuring they are 'keeping up' rather than 'catching up'.
 Ensure an appropriate progression of writing skills and knowledge is in place over time so that children are supported to be the best writers they can be, and challenge teachers to support struggling writers as well as extend more competent ones. Provide regular training for all staff which addresses elements for development identified through rigorous monitoring. 	 children in their development of their skills. Deploy appropriately challenging selections of texts, both non-fiction and fiction, accessible throughout learning to both scaffold and extend learning as needed 	 Clear differentiation of support ensuring every child's specific needs are targeted and addressed That children, over time, evidence they have embedded and subsequently built on the early phonic skills in order to continue to develop as a writer.

The class teacher, and other staff responsible for delivery of the programme, will, with support from the curriculum leader:

- Plan learning structures carefully to ensure they meet the needs of all children in their groups
- Personally pursue support for any particular subject knowledge and skills gaps prior to teaching.
- Ensure that resources are appropriate, of high enough quality and are plentiful so that all childrenhave the correct tools and materials.
- Attend all relevant training to ensure that they continually strive to deliver the very best writingteaching.

Our children will be:

- Engaged because they are challenged by the curriculum which they are provided with.
- Resilient learners who overcome barriers and understand their own strengths and areas for development.
- Able to critique their own work as a reader because they know how to be successful.
- Safe and happy in writing lessons which give them opportunities to explore their own style, skills and experiences.
- Encouraged and nurtured to overcome any barriers to their learning or self-confidence because feedback is positive and focuses writing skills and knowledge
- Develop writing skills and confidence over time because of careful planning, focused delivery and time to practice and hone skills.

The curriculum leader will:

- Celebrate the successes of children through planned displays and on the spot recognition
- Collate appropriate evidence over time which evidences that children know more and remembermore.
- Monitor the standards in the subject to ensure the outcomes are at expected levels.
- Ensure assessment in completed fairly, accurately and in a timely fashion to ensure that all children continue to be challenged and supported as they need.
- Provide ongoing CPD support based on the outcomes of subject monitoring to ensure that the impact of the curriculum is wide reaching and positive.